Worship Attendance

We've been blessed with good participation on all fronts recently. These have been good and welcomed signs for your preacher. They show me that more of us are taking our commitment to Christ seriously. Thanks for your attention and positive response to last Sunday's sermon. Lord willing, we will continue for the next several weeks to consider, "Who Is Like Our God?" I look forward to seeing you Sunday.

Outstanding Revival

God blessed us with an outstanding week of revival last week. Attendance was strong. The spirit of fellowship was sweet. Visitors were abundant. The home folks were faithful. Ralph Sproles' messages were outstanding. Each night he brought timely sermons that spoke to the heart of each one present. Special music was presented by "Vessels of Mercy", Lori Wynne, Pam Carson, "God's Harmony", Tony Krantz, Sarah Hardison, and our PCOC choir. Kudos to all! Our PCOC praise band, Sylvia Harrison, Tim and Linda Esolen, Rocky Allen and Denise Moulden, was in tune and on duty each night.

Let me give a special shout of praise for our revival volunteers. All the meal teams, greeters, nursery workers, house keepers, power point team, and sound techs did their jobs well each service. And most of all I want to thank our prayer warriors. Your faithful prayers were the key factor in God's hand being on us in such a special way. Good revivals are prayed down----not promoted up.

We've experienced a special time of God's favor. He used many of you as instruments in His hands. Thank you for your part in helping us experience such an outstanding week.

Work and Workers at PCOC

- David Oliver has been working part time for the church doing some painting in the FLC.
- David Alexander and Jordan Oliver hauled several loads of wood to be split and added to our firewood for the needy project for this winter.
- Jerry Williams helped clear some trees from a lady's yard. Wood from trees was given to two families.
- Jordan Oliver helped weed-eat and trim several areas around the church grounds recently.
- Carl and Gayle Critcher continue to do a good job caring for the landscaping around our buildings.
- Danny Wobbleton and Bill Lucas have been the point men in reaching a resolution on damages to parsonage #2. (A tree fell on the house the last week of June.)

From the Mailbag

Dear Plymouth Church of Christ, I apologize for this note being so late. I can't tell you enough how very much my family and I appreciated all the prayers you lifted up for our precious grandson, Lane Davenport. They were felt and kept us at peace during Lane's early birth. He is doing excellent now and we are so thankful. He is such a joy for us. I love my church and know it's the perfect place for me and again I am so very thankful for each of you. In God's Love, June Davenport

What's Happenin' With Our Youth

Thanks to all that helped out with Trunk or Treat. Due to the cold weather we moved it inside the FLC this year; however I don't think it dampened the spirits of the kids or the amount of candy.

On Sunday November 13th we will have our Fall Festival from 2-5. At five we will be having supper in the FLC. There is a sign-up sheet in the Greeting Center for the different foods that are needed. There will also be a sign-up sheet for time slots to work our inflatables. At 6 we will have Christian comedian Tony Wolf with us. Don't miss out.
